HAITIEN GOVERNOR HAS 160 MEN EXECUTED AND IS SHOT DEAD HIMSELF

General Oscar Riddled Following Massacre of Political Prisoners.

THE MOB IS INFURIATED

Revolt More Terrible Than That of Alexis' Day Aflame in Port au Prince.

Climax to Reign of Terror of Last Ten Days

Port au Prince, July 27.—A revolution more terrible in the toll thus far taken than any even in the days of Nord Alexis, flamed out in the Haitien capital today. It was an offshoot of the movement to the north, where the adherents of Dr. Rosalvo Bobo, twice expelled from Haiti, have been striving for several months to break the power of the Haitien president, General Vilbirum Guillaume.

One hundred and sixty men, including a former president of Haiti, General Orestes Zamor, were executed by order of General Oscar, governor of Port au Prince, who later in the day was dragged from the shelter of the Dominican legation and riddled with bullets.

President Guillaume and the members of his family have taken refuge in the French legation, an attack upon which has been threatened; the presidential palace has been partly destroyed after an attack of several hours, and the revolutionists are in possession of the city. How many persons have been killed cannot yet be learned.

Port au Prince has been in a state of panic for days. No one knew when he might be seized and cast into prison; there have been wholesale arrests, apparently without cause, by order of the president or some of those close to him.

The successes gained by the revolutionists in the north were convincing proof to the president and government officials that their course would soon be run. Therefore, they viewed with suspicion various individuals and organization. One regiment of soldiers was disbanded. It was this regiment which at 4 o'clock ths morning descended upon the palace.

Driven from Palace.

Guillaume and those who acted as his guard offered a stubborn resistance, but were greatly outnumbered. The palace was abandoned by the president, but some of the others continued its defense.

Soon word of the massacre of the political prisoners was circulated and a fierce wave of indignation swept over the capital. Many who had not originally been identified with the uprising took up arms.

The Dominican legation was invaded and the governor of Port au Prince paid the price with his life.

It was in March, 1908, that a similar execution of political prisoners, though not by any means of so great an extent, took place. Nord Alexis was then president of Haiti. A few months later Alexis was deposed and deported from the country.

So far as is known, no foreigners have suffered in the present uprising and it is expected that American warships will be sent here immediately to protect foreign lives and interests.

The victims of the massacre today included General Orestes Zamor, a former president of Haiti, who was driven out of the country last year, and returned in March, 1915, and was taken prisoner.

Outbreak of Indignation.

When the people of Port au Prince learned of the massacre, there was a general outbreak of indignation. A mob invaded the Dominican legation, where General Oscar took refuge after his unsuccessful defense of the presidential palace against the rebels, seized Oscar and dragged him before the door of the legation where he was promptly killed by a fusillade of rifle shots.

The mob then turned to the French legation and threatened to invade it to encompass the execution of President Guillaume. Guillaume took refuge under the flag of France this morning after he had been compelled to flee before the rebel attack.

General Oscar ordered the execution of the political prisoners in his power as soon as he perceived that the revolutionary outbreak was a serious menace.

First Broke Out in March.

The revolutionary movement against President Guillaume first broke out under the leadership of Dr. Rosalvo Bobo last March and was renewed today.

After several hours of fighting at the presidential residence, where Guillaume made a courageous defense against the revolutionists, the President took refuge in the French legation.

Rebellious troops of the government attacked the palace at 4 o'clock and continued firing upon it for two hours. The president was supported by a few loyal troops and the members of his personal staff. The exact number of casualties has not yet been determined, but it is believed to be heavy. By noon the city was in the possession of the revolutionists.

The movement was started by a regiment of soldiers who had been dis-

ONE QUESTION AS TO LEELANAW CASE

WASHINGTON, D. C. Library of Congress

Was Captain Requested to Deliver Out Contraband?

AND DID HE COMPLY?

Information Needed Before U. S. Government is Prepared to Make Representations to Germany. Saved the Crew.

Washington, July 27.—Information as to whether the captain of the steamer Leelanaw was required to deliver out the contraband in his cargo and was willing to do so is needed by the United States government before officials can determine the nature of representations which may be made to Germany on the destruction of the vessel by a German submarine.

The Prussian-American treaty of 1828 provided that the vessels of either party, when encountered in time of war, could not be detained if contraband was given up. Should it develop that the Leelanaw's skipper was ready to surrender the contraband, the United States will present a note declaring the occurrence as a violation of that treaty.

The rules of visit and search evidently were followed to the letter by the commander of the German submarine, according to official reports thus far received, and due precautions taken for the safety of the crew. Consul General Skinner at London today sent the following message:

"Leelanaw's crew proceeding to Dundee. Captain torpedoed ship states to consular agent at Kirkwall that he had ample time to leave ship before being fired on. Crew went on board submarine and remained some time. Ship's boats taken in tow 50 miles."

Previous messages had reported that the crew landed at Kirkwall in the Leelanaw's own boats.

There was an absence of tension today, for the case was regarded by officials as a diplomatic controversy which would require further legal argument, such as was made in the case of the William P. Frye. Liability possibly will be admitted again by Germany, it was thought. The fact that Germany in disputing the meaning of the treaty of 1828 in the Frye case has led to the belief that a similar position would be taken by the German foreign office in the present instance.

There was discussion today on the possibility that in the event of a deadlock on the interpretation of the treaty, the subject might eventually be submitted for arbitration.

GIVEN AMPLE WARNING.

Say Captain and Crew Who Arrive at Aberdeen, Scotland.

Aberdeen, Scotland, July 28.—The captain and crew of the American steamer Leelanaw, which was sunk by a German submarine in the North Sea last Sunday night, arrived here last night. They say that several shots were fired at the vessel by the submarine, but that they were given ample warning before the steamer was sunk.

German Authority on International Law Writes

Says Wilson's Contention That American Citizens May Travel Where Their Interests Call Them is Untenable.

Berlin, July 27, (by Wireless to Sayville)—Prof. Eduard Heilfron, an authority on international law, commenting in an article in Der Tag on the American note to Germany, says:

"The American note must produce indignation and great irritation. President Wilson's contenton that American citizens may travel where their interest upon the high seas call them is absolutely untenable.

"International law unconditionally acknowledges that neutrals do not possess absolute freedom of travel on the high seas in war time. The Lusitania case concerns not a neutral ship but a hostile ship of which there were strong suspicions of her being turned into an auxiliary cruiser at any moment.

"The insinuation of the United States that Germany should give up her submarine warfare so that American citizens could travel on British ships, is comprehensible only because it is in accordance with the entire attitude of

SECOND NOTE FROM GREAT BRITAIN IS COMING THIS WEEK

Publication of Communication of Monday Withheld at Grey's Request.

NO EXPLANATION GIVEN

Probably to Afford Time to Consider Note Cabled to London July 17.

Washington, July 27.—The request of Sir Edward Grey, British minister for foreign affairs, that the State Department withhold from publication in tomorrow morning's papers, as originally planned, the text of the British note received yesterday in reply to the American protest against the British order in council, caused much speculation today in official circles. No explanation was made beyond the statement that another note on the same subject was promised from London within a week.

Secretary Lansing declined to advance any theory for the supplementing of the first communication. The American note which has been in preparation for some time, will be further delayed until the new document is in hand.

It was at first supposed by officials that statements in the last American note to Germany, which were of general application and set out the purpose of the United States government to maintain the freedom of the seas, might have influenced the British foreign office to deal with that subject in the same note which defends the order in council.

From British sources, however, it was learned that the main purpose of asking the postponement of publication was to afford opportunity to the British government to consider the communication cabled from Washington July 17 in regard to cases before British prize courts.

What That Note Contained

This communication recited in view of the differences understood to exist between the two governments under the principles of law applying prize court proceedings in cases involving American interest, and in order to avoid any misunderstanding of the attitude of the United States, the British government was informed that the American government would insist on the recognition of the rights of American citizens under the principles of international law as hitherto established, governing neutral trade in time of war, and would not recognize the validity of prize court proceedings taken under the restraints imposed by British municipal law in derogation of the rights of American citizens under international law.

The British note delivered yesterday is understood to be framed upon the theory that the order in council does not transgress the rights of neutrals as laid down in international law, though it is admitted that in some respects the application of the legal principles is new. In view of the sweeping objection by the United States to the order in council, the British government feels, it is understood, this phase requires special treatment at this time.

One feature of the British note is understood to deal exhaustively with the right of a country to blockade an enemy through neutral ports. That the United States, in case it should be

STRIKERS VOTE TO GO BACK TO WORK TODAY

Accept Proposition of Superintendent Hennessey.

At An Impromptu Mass Meeting Some 200 Men Unanimously Vote to Return to Standard Oil Plant for Work Today.

New York, July 27.—The strikers of the Standard Oil Company, at a street meeting late today, voted to accept the proposition of G. B. Hennessy, the plant superintendent, and return to work tomorrow.

Mr. Hennessey's proposal in effect was that he would recommend an increase in wages if the strikers returned.

The meeting was held, despite the prohibitory notice issued by Sheriff Kinkead earlier in the day, and was addressed by former Mayor Matthew Cronin and Commissioner of Public Safety Frank Wilson. They called the men together outside of union hall, read the proposition of Mr. Hennessey and asked that those who would return to work tomorrow, under the conditions named, to raise their hands.

Nearly every man in the gathering, which numbered over 200 and was made up chiefly of still-cleaners and coopers, the original strikers, put up their hands and the crowd, as it dispersed, set up a cheer.

Sheriff Kinkead had left town before the impromptu meeting was held.

DRAGGING DEAD WOMEN FROM WRECK OF THE EASTLAND.

Lifting Woman from Main Deck.

Lifting Woman from Hole in the Hull.

Dead women by the hundred were lifted from the main deck to the hull of the Eastland when she was wrecked in the Chicago river Saturday. Others were hauled up from holes cut in th plates of the vessel. Few of them showed signs of life. The two in these photographs, taken a few hours after the wreck, were dead, but had not died of drowning. Their clothing was dry, showing they had been suffocated.

PEACE CONFERENCE IN MEXICO LIKELY

Efforts in That Direction Reported Under Way.

TALK OF AN EMBARGO

Representatives of Various Factions Said to be Consulting Military Leaders as to Conference, Either With or Without Carranza

Washington, July 27.—Efforts to bring about a conference of military leaders in Mexico, in anticipation of a final appeal to faction leaders by the United States, are reported to be under way in the southern republic.

Information reached Washington tonight that representatives of various factions were consulting their leaders in view of assembling of a peace conference either with or without General Carranza. The report added to the interest in official quarters aroused by intimations that the administration was considering asking General Carranza to reconsider his refusal to participate in peace negotiations which President Wilson urged two months ago.

Diaz Lombardo, General Villa's foreign secretary, who came to Washington to study the attitude of the Washington government, is reported to have returned to Torreon to consult with his chief. General Felipe Angeles, Villa's chief military adviser, who was in Washington, is enroute to Nogales, where he plans to confer with General Maytorena, Villa governor of Sonora. The purpose of his visit is to procure Maytorena's assurance that he and his adherents will join in deliberations to plan for restoration of constitutional government and ultimate recognition by the United States. Miguel Larelo, ambassador to the United States in Madero's regime, but not actively allied either with Carranza, Villa or Zapata, also is on the border, and is said to be interested in a proposal to unite all the factions, if possible, and, should Carranza again refuse to join in a peace conference, to support a conference of representatives of all other factions.

An embargo on exportation of munitions of war to Mexico was said tonight to be contemplated as a part of the next step of the Washington government. Such an embargo, it was stated on high authority, would be rigidly enforced.

exico City remained cut off from the outside world today despite official efforts to get word of actual conditions there. Reports that Carranza forces under General Gonzales had returned to the capital lacked official confirmation.

The Carranza agency here asserted that Gonzales already had reached the outskirts of the capital and would re-enter the city.

BECKER'S LIFE YET HANGS IN BALANCES

Justice Ford Studies Briefs Late Into the Night.

FILED BY BOTH SIDES

Decision as to New Trial Expected to Be Handed Down Late Today or Thursday Morning—Prisoner Preparing Statement.

New York, July 27.—Whether Charles Becker, the former police lieutenant, twice convicted of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, will die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison Friday morning or will be given an additional respite appeared tonight to rest with Supreme Court Justice John Ford, who, after receiving briefs for and against a motion for a new trial, studied them until a late hour. He promised to announce his decision as quickly as possible and it is expected to be handed down late tomorrow or Thursday morning.

W. Bourke Cockran, chief counsel for the condemned man, also filed a supplemental brief covering points raised by District Attorney Perkins.

Should Justice Ford exercise his right to call for witnesses, it is believed that Mr. Cockran would ask that Becker be brought from Sing Sing to testify in his own behalf.

Mr. Cockran argued in his appeal that the judgment of death against Becker was obtained by the suppression of vital facts and the misrepresentation of other facts by the chief witness for the prosecution.

It is declared in the brief that the affidavit of Hartford T. Marshall, former counsel for "Bridgie" Webber, should in itself be sufficient to grant a new trial.

Attorney Marshall's affidavit alleges that Webber confessed to Marshall that Becker was not a party to the murder plot.

Mr. Cockran's brief refers to Becker's failure to testify at his trials as follows:

"In the case the defendant remained silent during his trial, not through fear of any discreditable revelation or through a reluctance to make any damaging confession but through a Quixotic action of loyalty to a promise, itself improvident and extravagant. Indeed, his conduct in this respect is so extraordinary that were it not established by proof it would be considered incredible."

District Attorney Perkins, in his brief, contends that the justice has not the sovereign power to grant a new trial as claimed by Mr. Cockran. The so-called new evidence is declared to be cumulative and designed to impeach that at former hearings. It is contended also that the so-called new

DRIVE AT WARSAW NOT DRIVING MUCH

Where Teutons Are Moving Forward It is Yard by Yard

AT TREMENDOUS COST

Everywhere in East Battles are at Their Height and London Military Critics Consider It Most Critical Campaign Yet.

London, July 27.—The Austro-German drive at Warsaw, which for a time progressed almost with the momentum of the offensive which cleared Galicia of Russian troops, has been brought nearly to a standstill, and where the Teutons are moving forward it is only yard by yard and at tremendous cost in men and material.

German Field Marshal Von Mackensen has taken a few villages on the way to the Lublin-Cheim railway, between the Vistula and the Bug rivers, and the Austrians, by a counter offensive at Sokal, have captured positions which will make the German flank safer, but Berlin officially reports that "otherwise the position of the German troops under Von Mackensen remains unchanged."

Along the western bank of the Vistula from Ivangorod to Novogeorgovsk even less progress apparently has been made, while along the Narew, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, who has been directing operations in an effort to drive a wedge in behind the city, is now largely occupied in meeting the Russian counter attacks.

These counter attacks, according to Petrograd, have succeeded in forcing the Germans who had crossed the river to return to the northern bank at several points, but Berlin asserts that they completely failed and that the German force is advancing.

The Russian armies defeated in the Baltic provinces recently, also have turned, and, according to the Berlin official report, have delivered an attack from Mitau, which was repulsed.

Further to the south, the Germans continue their advance eastward towards the Vilna-Petrograd railway, but as there is a lot of territory to cover before this is reached, it is considered more likely that General Von Buelow, who is in command here, will turn to the southwest to relieve the pressure on Von Hindenburg.

Everywhere the battles are at their height and all the military critics here believe this is the most critical engagement of the campaign, for the whole German plan depends on reaching the Lublin-Cheim railway.

Fierce Fighting in West.

With interest largely centered on the East, the important offensive of the French in Alsace has been most disregarded. They report tonight another success to the north of Munster, which apparently is their objective, and the repulse of a series of German counter attacks. The French have concentrated a lot of artillery in this region, and with high explosives have been simply tearing up the German defensive works, which are among the strongest along the whole line.

Artillery, likewise, is playing an important part in the battle on the Isonzo, where the Italians are reported to have continued for three days their fire on Austrian positions. Their fire is said to have exceed in violence that which the Austro-Germans employed against the Russians in Western Galicia, which up to that time was the most terrific every experienced in war.

Submarines Active.

German submarines continue their activity, and there is an apparent attempt to demoralize the British fish supply, for two submarines have appeared suddenly among the fishing fleet off the north coast of Scotland and by shell fire sunk nine trawlers. All the crews of the fishing craft escaped.

The Danish steamer Nogill, loaded with railroad ties from Gothenburg, Swedan, for the river Tyne, also has

EASTLAND SHOULD NOT HAVE CARRIED MORE THAN 1,200

Boat Was "Cranky", Overloaded and Grounded on the River Bottom.

SAYS HARBOR MASTER

Also Was Under-Ballasted, According to Testimony Before Coroner.

Chicago, July 27.—Overloading, under-ballasting and grounding on the river bottom, were cited today in testimony at the coroner's inquest as reasons why the steamer Eastland toppled over Saturday at its wharf here and drowned hundreds of excursionists. Adag F. Weckler, harbor master, and Joseph R. Lynn, assistant harbor master, both of whom were present when the steamer capsized with its licensed capacity of 2,500 persons aboard, in ascribing the accident to these causes, told the coroner's jury that the boat was "cranky" and should never have been permitted by government inspectors to carry more than 1,200 persons.

While the coroner's jury was hearing this and other testimony, Secretary of Commerce Redfield inspected the Eastland and watched divers, combining the wreck and surrounding waters, recover three more bodies.

He stated formerly the government supervision had not been lacking and the Eastland had safely carried many more passengers than were aboard when she rolled over. He said that Federal officers would do everything possible to fix the blame, if there was any.

Harbor Master Weckler testified that he arrived at the Eastland's wharf 20 minutes before the steamer was due to start and saw that the boat was listing to port. He said he called to Captain Pedersen, of the Eastland, to trim the vessel, shouting that he would not open the Clark Street bridge until the boat was righted.

Mr. Weckler said the captain tried to right the ship, but seemed unable to take water into the ballast tanks fast enough.

"I never saw the Eastland loaded so heavily as it was Saturday morning," said Mr. Weckler, "and I have seen her depart many times. The boat first listed about seven degrees, then came back slightly and again started over, and kept on going.

Thinks 1,200 the Limit.

"I don't think that the Eastland should have been allowed to carry more than 1,200 passengers, because it did not have enough draft and stability to carry a larger load. Only last Tuesday I told Captain Pedersen that his boat needed trimming as it was constantly traveling on its ears. He said that the twin screws kept the Eastland on an even keel while under way.

"After his arrest I heard Captain Pedersen say that he tried for seventeen minutes to trim the steamer, but could not get water into the ballast tanks fast enough. I don't believe Captain Pedersen realized the danger until the final plunge came."

Mr. Lynn, assistant harbor master, testified that when he saw the dangerous list of the steamship, he called the police and fire departments. Returning to the wharf, he saw passengers leaping from the decks to the river.

"I believe," said Mr. Lynn, "that the ship was on the bottom after midship. If the captain tried for seventeen minutes to right the boat without attempting to get off those on board, there was negligence."

Mr. Lynn said that he saw many of the crew leap on the wharf while the ship was careening.

Captain John M. O'Meara, of the tug Kenosha, which was to tow the Eastland out of the river, testified he had towed the Eastland four times and she always listed.

L. C. Wheeler, assistant division superintendent of the Department of Justice, submitted government inspection certificats, including the latest one issued by Robert Reid, July 2, 1915, at the request of Captain Pederson, that the carrying capacity be increased. This certificate allowed the Eastland to take on 2,570 passengers, an increase of 500 over previous permits.

Identified Dead Still 824.

Efforts to check up the total dead made no progress today. The official list of identified again totalled 824. While the list of missing grew, only three bodies were recovered and divers said that possibly not more than a score of victims remained in the ship.

While State's Attorney Hoyne said he had evidence that some 2,500 were on the ship, the government checkers said that they were positive no more than 2,500 went aboard, including children.

A contract to raise the steamer was let today and the work will be begun as soon as possible. Many funerals will be held tomorrow. The day has officially been proclaimed as one of mourning, public buildings having already been draped.

No Friction Says Redfield.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield tonight issued a second statement asserting that there was no truth in reports that there was friction between Federal investigators and anybody else. Mr. Redfield said he had arranged to cooperate fully with U. S. District Attorney Clyde in trying to place blame for the accident.

The statement continues:

"In order that the seriousness of this particular accident may be given due weight, we shall arrange with the local board of inspectors to have Mr. Thurman, of the Department of Justice, and myself conduct the inquiry, with the Lumberton, Maxton, Raeford and Albemarle Organise League.

Maxton, N. C., July 27.—As a result of the call for all those towns intending to contend for the honor of being the Eastern Carolina amateur baseball champions, and as such to play the Western champions at Charlotte for the trophy cup offered by the Charlotte Observer, to meet here yesterday, representatives from Red Burings, Raeford, Lumberton and Albemarle held a meeting here and organized the Eastern Amateur League, composed of teams from these four towns.

Henry A. McKinnon, of Maxton, was elected president of the league and the schedule below was agreed upon. Each team is to play every other team five games, and it was agreed that the team having the highest percentage of won games according to this schedule, should as between these four teams, be the Eastern champions and entitled to play the Western champions for the State championship, except that Raeford reserved the right to submit her claim to the sporting editor of the Charlotte Observer, even if she was not winner of this series, on account of games already won. Intense rivalry exists between the towns of this circuit and the league should be a success.

RED SPRINGS BEATS RAEFORD IN GOOD GAME AT FAYETTEVILLE

Fayetteville, N. C., July 27.—Weathers, the 17-year-old pitcher of Raeford, after holding Red Springs to seven hits, only two of which were bunched, lost to Red Springs here this afternoon, chiefly because his support, especially with the bat, was not as good as that accorded the Red Springs pitcher.

In addition to the pitching of Weathers, the outstanding features of the game were the clever sacrificing of Johnson, of Raeford, the three base hits of Glazener, of Red Springs; the fast double plays by both sides, and the play in which Poole, who succeeded Mc-Keithan behind the bat in the eighth for Raeford, caught Joplin, Red Springs manager, off third base, after he had stolen second and third. This probably prevented another score.

Joplin stole four bases. McRae made three of Raeford's four hits. The attendance was good, being near a thousand. Ulrich and Freesland pitched for Red Springs.

Chicago, July 27.—Both Chicago Federals and Chicago Nationals today announced their games scheduled for tomorrow would be postponed out of respect to the official day of mourning for the Eastland victims set by the city authorities. List Shows Close Conformity to That of British Government

THEATRICAL

With "The Black Box" over the Bijou can now make Wednesday a big feature day by presenting some of those exceptional Universal feature productions, opening at the usual time—11 A. M.

For the first of these big productions there is presented today that beautiful and tense three-reel Red drama, "Souls in Pawn", featuring that peerless pair of stars, Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips. It is a strong drama of the passions. A boy's love for an unworthy woman, the beautiful story of a friend's sacrifice, a crime, the saving of an innocent man from an awful fate; these are the elements mingled in a plot that moves swiftly forward in every scene. A tenderly beautiful story of love lends the needed relief and the whole is a photoplay that is equal in strength and atention to detail to the greatest feature production offered anywhere at any price. Powerful acting by Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips makes this drama a real treat, in three thrilling reels.

The first Universal cartoon comedy, "Bobby Bumps Gets Papa's Goat" comes next on the bill and is full of wholesouled humor of the cleanest kind. Then there's a great single reel Pathe production, "When Knights Were Bold" that will appeal to everyone.

At the Grand Today.

"The War o' Dreams," a three-reel Selig feature, at the Grand today. A strong, convincing argument against the destruction of human lives wrought by warfare is contained in "The War o' Dreams." It's a Selig masterpiece.

Arthur Ensign, an aged inventor, and his wife lived together in poverty so that Bessie, their daughter, may receive an education.

Ensign has long been working to develop a powerful explosive. His reputation as chief chemist for the nation years ago, makes his investigations the more important. By an accident, Ensign discovers a formula for "Trixite" which through the medium of ether waves can be exploded at almost any desired locality. Ensign interest the war department in his new explosive. It is the more timely, because the government is worried because of inadequate defense of the country against possible enemies. The Ensign's dream of a terrible war that his country is occupied by an enemy; illustrates a terrible battle, and is also a powerful argument in favor of peace. The cast includes Edwin Wallock, Lillian Hayward, Bessie Eyton and A. D. Blake.

The always interesting Hearst-Selig Weekly the regular Wednesday bulletin, will be the added attraction. Showing all the current events of interest. Tomorrow will be Paramount day. Jesse L. Lasky presents America's foremost character actor. Theodore Roberts, in a typical American play, "The Circus Man," adapted from the famous novel "The Rose in the Ring," in five parts by George Barr McCutcheon.

Friday, "The Goddess," installment No. 2, in which Anita Stewart and Earle Williams make their appearance.

"Baby Mine" Pleases

While the audience last night was not large, those who attended the theatre were well pleased with the presentation of "Baby Mine", by the "Academy Players", the cast having been strong and well suited to their respective roles. Today there will be a matinee performance and tonight the usual evening performance. Next week the company will present a Western drama of much beauty and force, "The Highwayman". The management sincerely hopes that the people of Wilmington will show their appreciation of this stock engagement to such an extent that it may be continued at the local playhouse as a permanent feature.

Remains of George Hollingworth, Drowned at Ocean View

(Special Star Correspondence)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 27.—The remains of George Hollingsworth, the unfortunate young man who met with death while in bathing at Ocean View, Va., Sunday, were brought here on the early southbound train this morning and taken immediately to his old home, near Dobbersville, this county, some eight or nine miles west of here, for interment. Both he and his family are well known here, where they have a number of relatives, who were greatly shocked and saddened by the news of his untimely death.

Mrs. Mary Pass, about seventy years of age, widow of the late J. C. Pass, died at her home in Faison Sunday, and was buried in the cemetery there Monday afternoon. The immediate cause of her death was said to be injuries sustained in a run-away acident a few days ago, coupled with her advanced age.

Mrs. Pass was one of Faison's wealthiest and most prominent citizens, and was known far and near as one of Duplin county's most progressive and successful farmers, personally supervising her large farm herself.

GARRISON ASKS THAT PUBLIC BE PATIENT

And Not Press for Details of Military Policy Yet

Will Not Give Them to Press Until Appropriate Time Has Come to Make Them Public —Harmful.

Washington, July 27.—Secretary of War Garrison issued a statement tonight urging that he be not pressed for details of the military policy not under preparation until the appropriate time has come to make them public.

The Secretary will submit to the President next week a general plan of army reorganization. He has refused to discuss this subject or indicate what is specifically contemplated in the plan.

"I have absolutely refrained from making any such statements, because I feel that the effect thereof at this time would be more hurtful than helpful," the statement says. "There have been published many unauthentic statements of what is in contemplation, and I feel that the effect of these has been hurtful rather than helpful.

"My reason for refusing to make anything public at this time is that the policy has not yet been formulated with its details sufficiently worked out so as to make it possible to present it as a whole. Whether it is acceptable as a whole, depends upon considering it in tha aspect. Each part of such a policy is necessarily related to the other parts; and it is only as a whole that it can be properly presented and considered. If some one or more of the various parts are put forth separately and debated and discussed, they might excite opposition which would be entirely dissipated if not turned into approval when considered in connection with the whole plan.

"I feel that all sensible, patriotic citizens wish to see a wise, sensible, practical adequate military policy proposed and agreed upon. We are working to do our part toward that end. We are only hampered by premature discussion of specific details which can only be properly considered in relation to all the details."

SLANDER OF WILSON RESENTED

Literature Received by State Officers is Very Displeasing.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—There come regularly every week and often at more frequent intervals to the executive offices of Governor Craig and to the other State offices as well cartoons and typewritten literature mailed from leading cities in Germany and from some sort of German headquarters in New York and other points in this country designed to belittle the American policies as set out in the notes of President Wilson and his cabinet to the Imperial government of Germany and insisting that these do not represent the real American sentiment and that they cannot be acceded to by the German government, especially the modification of the German submarine policy.

The cartoons imply the most flagrant and stultifying alliances between the American and the british governments. The sending broadcast of this literature is taken here to mean that some German agencies are definitely undertaking to control public sentiment in America as to the German relations and to bring the American government, headed by President Wilson and his cabinet, into disrepute. Some of the most influential folk hereabouts are taking the view that neither Germany nor any other of the nations connected with the war would permit the circulation of such literature among their people. It seems likely that the attention of the government at Washington will be directed to this German campaign, which is most probably country-wide.

FUNERAL OF MR. JAS. A. PRIDGEN

Father of Dr. C. L. Pridgen, of Wilmington, Buried at Kinston

(Special Star Correspondence)

Kinston, N. C., July 27.—The funeral of the late James A. Pridgen, one of Kinston's most prominent citizens, was held here yesterday, with services at the home and in Maplewood cemetery, where interment was made. Mr. Pridgen had been in feeble health for many months. He was 79 years old, and death was attributed to the infirmities of old age. He was born in Greene county in 1836. He engaged in business after the surrender at Falling Creek and in Kinston. He was mayor of Kinston in 1869, and served for several terms as chairman of the board of commissioners of Lenoir county. He was an active churchman and a member of the First Baptist church here. He had been retired from business since 1897. Mr. Pridgen had accumulated a considerable amount of property. He is survived by his wife and five children, Misses Anna and Roberta Pridgen and Carl W. Pridgen, register of deeds of Lenoir county, of Kinston; Dr. C. L. Pridgen, of Wilmington, and Dr. Jas. H. Pridgen, of Waco, Texas.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

STOCK MARKET PRICES ARE RAPIDLY LIFTED

Not Such a Broad and Sustained Advance in Weeks

Public Buying Increased to an Outburst of Speculative Activity—Growth of Bullish Sentiment Without Special Apparant Cause.

New York, July 27.—An outburst of speculative activity lifted prices rapidly today in the stock market. Public buying of stocks increased and not for weeks had there been such a broad and sustained advance.

The growth of bullish sentiment could hardly be attributed to any single definite influence, a number circumstances contributed to it. The sharp recovery from the break after the torpedoing of the American steamer Leelanaw was accepted as an indication of the market's strong position.

An active demand for railroad stocks was perhaps the most significant feature of the trading. The issues of late have been dull and heavy on account of diminising earnings and fears of dividend reductions in certain cases.

SYSTEM OF TRIPLICATE RATE STATEMENTS BEING PREPARED

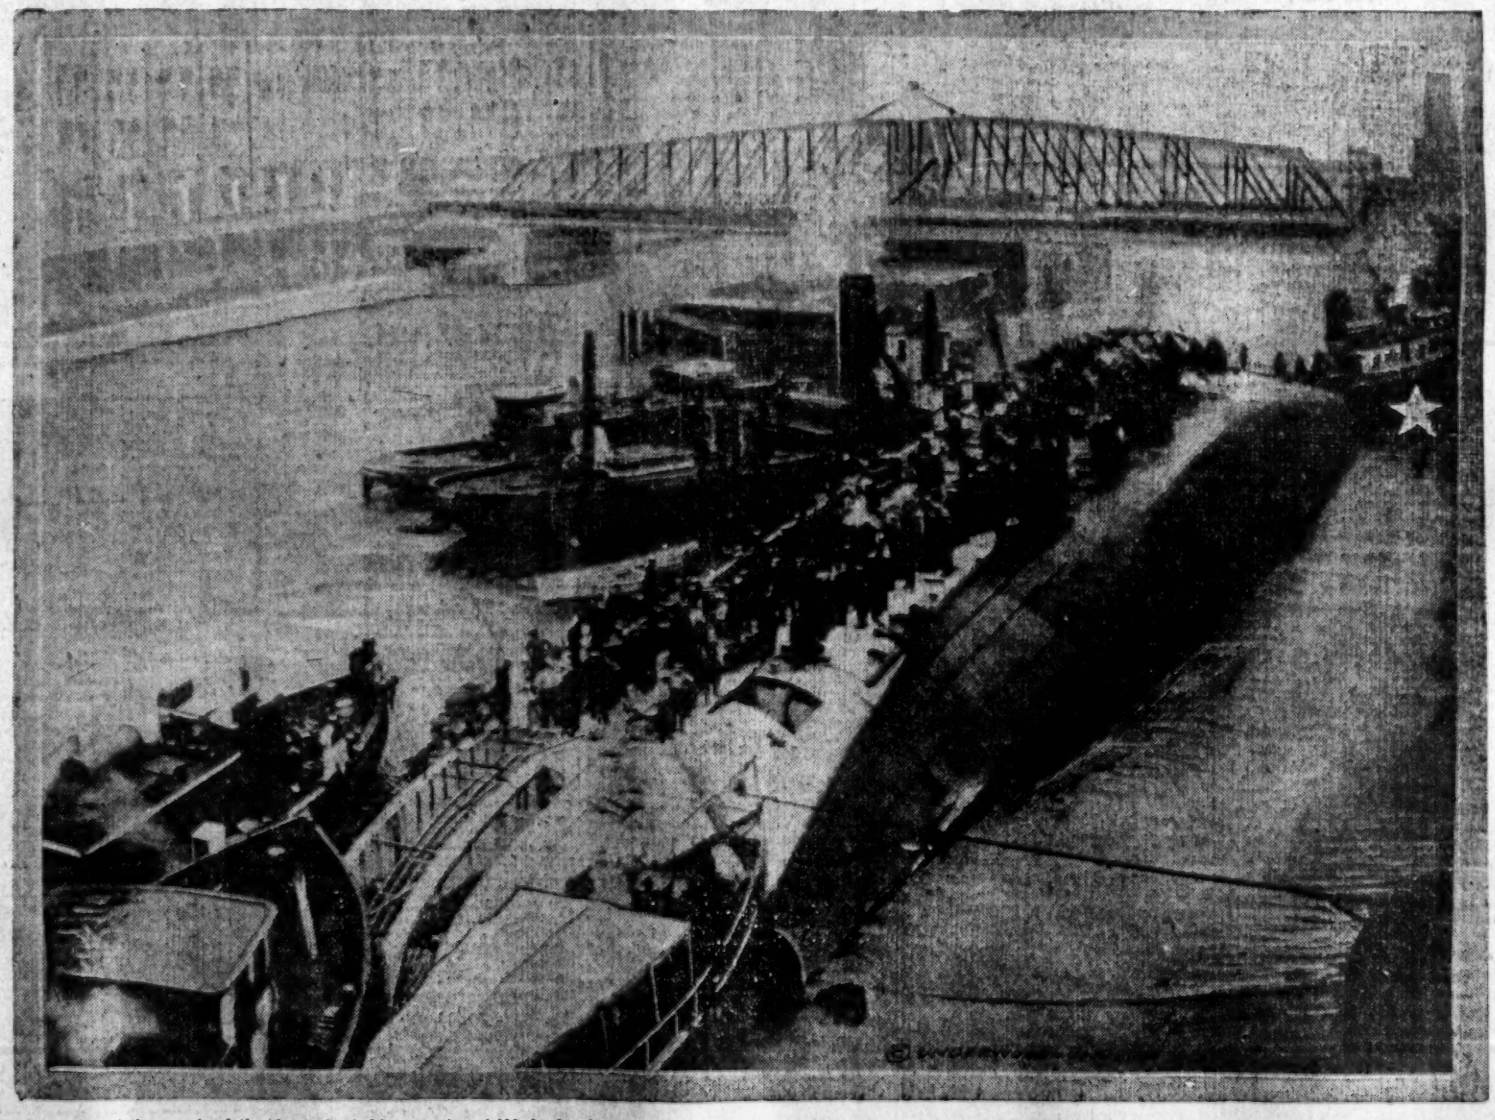
By N. C. Bureau of the Southeastern Tariff Association.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—The North Carolina rating bureau of the Southeastern Tariff Association, which makes the insurance rates in this State, has advised Commissioner of Insurance rates in this State, has advised Commissioner triplicate rates statements for every item of insured properly in the State under the new insurance law so that they will be readily accessible through a number of systems and will show the basis rates and the credits and debits in the way of conditions that lower the rate and defects that increase the rate. Every insurer will be furnished wit ha copy of this statement as to his property so that he can do whatever is necessary to obtain the minimum rate by reducing the fire risk. There is also being inaugurated a card index system of special agreements between insurers and agents and to the co-insurance clause and its application of no-applicatio in policies issued.

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—The special bulletin of prices of cotton, corn and other farm products the past week in the markets of this State, just issued, shows that cotton dropped completely below the 9 cent standard and ranged from 8 5-8 to 8 cents, the high record being on the Charlotte and Henderson markets, which were 8 5-8 compared with 8 3-8 on the Norfolk, Va., market. Prevailing prices on other North Carolina markets were 8 8 1-4 to 8 1-2 cents. There was no change of note in the prices of other farm products. Demand is reported to be good.

Wreck of the Eastland in Chicago River, Where Hundreds Died



This photograph of the wreck of the excursion steamer Eastland in the Chicago river Saturday morning, was taken an hour after the accident. It looks toward the Clark street bridge from a point above the stern of the vessel. She is lying on her port side, an dthe crowd of men on the hull are the rescuers, who took from the hold more than 1,000 dead.

In the distance at the right is the tug Kenosha, which had a line at the bow of the Eastland to tow her to Lake Michigan. The captain of the tug, as he saw the steamship careening swung around with his stern against her bow and his bow against the wharf. This formed a bridge over which several hundred escaped.

EVERYBODY HAS PLENTY

Fruits and Vegetables Around Mount Olive in Super-Abundance.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 27.—Not in many years, perhaps, has it been such a difficult matter for the farmers of this section to dispose of their fruit—apples, peaches, etc.—and garden produce on the local market to good advantage as has been the case with them here for the past few weeks. Quite a number of the citizens of the city have been successful in raising in their small gardens all of the various kinds of vegetables they needed and some to spare; while nearly all of the farmers have raised quite an abundance of such things. Their orchards are also said to be loaded to the breaking point with unusually fine fruit, of which it seems now that there is sure to be considerable waste and loss, because such a small per cent. of the farmers are prepared to preserve this fruit by canning and storing away for sale at a later date, or to save it in any other manner.

Says the Baltimore Sun: "Some people don't know a harvest moon from a waffle." All they know about it is that the waffle is the best to eat

The historians are jotting down the data covering the cause of the war in Europe. They ought to inquire of avarice if it has had anything to do with it.

This country is shocked and disgusted. It is not one of the belligerents, although some of its citizens are carrying ultimatums in their pockets.

Dean Swift wrote: "Censure is the tax a man pays to the public for being eminent." Colonel Bryan and General Kitchener can exchanges glances of approval of that.

Says the Spartanburg Herald: "The Jacksonville Times-Union thinks that it is fortunate that most cranks are poor shots." Nevertheless, when a crank shoots a man, it is about the same as being shot by Buffalo Bill.

When the various High-Wo-Muckamucks of Europe go to the front, they remain in the rear if the army is advancing, but they get right in the front if the army is retreating. It depends upon which way the front is going.

Wilson may make mistakes in dealing with the European belligerents, but where is the American who would not make more mistakes if he were in Wilson's place at the present time? Certainly, we'd rather risk the destiny of the nation in Wilson's hands than in the hands of his bitterest critics. Wouldn't you?

Miss Jane Addams says she has no plan for bringing about peace. If she wants to be considered a great American patriot, she had better not have any plan. Colonel Bryan had a plan, but he kept on sticking to it till it made him a political orphan. Colonel Roosevelt has no plan but to criticise Wilson's way, and most of the fun he is now enjoying is to ridicule all plans and create derision for all pacifists.

"My President, though I did not vote for him," is the declaration of Uncle Joe Cannon. That is the way the Republicans should have looked at it when they were ridiculing "watchful waiting." That is the way Democrats should look at it, whether the President's foreign policy succeeds or fails. He carries more burden on him than any other American and whatever his plans are they are intended for the good o fthe American people.

The Southern Woman's Magazine gives this recipe: "Nine teaspoonfuls of unfermented grape juice, six teaspoonfuls of lemon juice, one bottle of ginger ale, three maraschino cherries, three slices of orange, shaved ice in the glasses. Fill the glasses with ice, combine the fruit juices and pour an equal amount into each glass. Place a slice of orange and a cherry on each, then fill with ginger ale." Most fellows will regard that as a whole lot of trouble for nothing.

PREPARING FOR SAFETY

President Wilson is a strong but reasonable advocate of peace, but he is not such an optimist as to become obsessed of the idea that we can make sure of permanent peace through treaties, statesmanship and diplomacy, however useful these may be as factors in maintaining peace and notwithstanding the fact that without statesmanship and diplomacy we could have no assurance of peace for any considerable length of time. The war in Europe has taught us of the possibilities of armed conflict, not because this is a country of jingoes, but because of the conflict of international interests and policies.

Even this time last year, the American people had no confirmed idea that the whole of Europe would soon be plunged into war. Even the British people were on the eve of joining in the titanic conflict without hardly knowing it. At the beginning we could not conceive of possibilities that would embroil America, but the war has brought us threatening possibilities and even probabilities not of our making.

President Wilson has contended with enough to tax and test the wisdom and courage of the nation itself and, while his one determination has been to preserve peace for Americans, the war still goes on and the longer it lasts the more frequently occur grave incidents that are liable at a moment to get us into a war which nobody in this country cares to enter if it can be avoided.

President Wilson has not gone to preparing for war, but he has wisely decided that in order to assure the safety and protection of this country there should be a programme of reasonable preparedness. He will ask a willing Congress to provide more ships and equipment for the navy, and to prepare a coast defense that may be relied upon for security. The army plans also will be enlarged and both naval and military experts and the inventors and machinicians of the country will be called upon for advice and counsel.

All this is very well and it is just what the country expects. This is not the day of the Utopian ideals of the pacificists, for the world conditions do not warrant this people in seriously believing that civilization and American diplomacy can save us so that we can be undisturbed by what has happened and is liable to occur.

This country is not preparing to go to war with any country, but the struggle in Europe and the years of reconstruction to follow make it a piece of wisdom for the government to take all the precautions necessary for all events.

We will prepare for safety instead of for war with any country, for war except in the event of absolute necessity, is far away from the thoughts of Americans.

Protection of American rights and the defense of the country is what all Americans are committed to now and all the time.

PLANS FOR FINANCING COTTON

In New York financial circles there is no sentiment in favor of forming another cotton pool to finance the cotton crop, such as the St. Louis plan organized during the marketing stress last year. We always will believe, however, that the organization of that pool was the mainstay of confidence in cotton, but while it was perfecting its fine system for doing business, the foreign markets for cotton opened and the staple began to move. The pool was really found unnecessary as a financial proposition, and furthermore we learned from the emergency that we could practically rely upon Southern banks to stem the tide of threatened adversity. We were stronger than we knew, and most of the calamity howling indulged in was really useless and actually did harm to the South.

So far as the present outlook is concerned, there is no need for much more than the mildest apprehension, for the Federal Reserve Board already has plans for financing such cotton as may be put into warehouses to be keep off the market. Chairman W. P. Harding and his associates on the subcommittee of the Federal Reserve Board, which has been investigating the cotton situation, will make a report to the board this week. With, perhaps, a few minor changes, it is expected that the report will be adopted by the board. That a plan will be forthcoming is all that need be said to assure the cotton growers that if financing the crop will save them from loss, the Federal Reserve Board will see that the money is available.

As soon as the plan is agreed upon, it is the tentative purpose to issue a circular to Federal Reserve banks regarding the discounting of commercial paper arising from loans made on warehouse cotton. The Reserve Board will meet this week, and as this is a matter of prime importance, the New York Journal of Commerce, through its special representative at Washington, gives this advance information:

"The board's committee has obtained a number of reports from all over the country regarding the condition of cotton warehouses, their location and the space available. Agents of the Department of Agriculture have reported that the warehouses of the South are badly located and in such places as to make storage more costly than necessary. It is believed, however, there is ample space to take care of all the needs which are likely to arise from the marketing of the crop of 1915. The board will call the attention of the reserve banks to existing regulations and the law making provision for the discounting of loans made upon staple agricultural products This is held to apply to cotton. The board's committee will not give the cotton problem any further consideration.

"Reports have come to the attention of the board that agents of German mills have been in the United States drafting plans for the purchase and storage in the United States of cotton from the 1915 crop. The members of the board told your correspondent that while they have heard the report and have given it their consideration they are absolutely without official verification. It is believed that the board does not desire to have the matter brought to their attention, but would prefer the German agents to work independently with the full knowledge that their plans will receive the hearty co-operation of all domestic interests.

"It is said that the German agents are trying to arrange first for a credit loan in the United States with which to purchase and store the cotton. They believe that such a loan would be profitable, because when peace is declared they anticipate that cotton will go to 12 cents and higher. At present they can buy and store cotton for about 5 cents. The German mills would consider it bad business to permit peace to come and find them without an adequate supply of cotton on hand, while the English and American mills would already have a surplus supply purchased at a much reduced price.

"The board has already drafted regulations on bankers' acceptances based upon imports and exports which forbid the discounting at the reserve banks of the drafts on the credit loans made by the allied nations. These regulations were so drafted because the law states that loans may not be made to foreign nations. In the case of the paper arising on cotton stored, however, it is believed that the paper will be permitted to be discounted no matter whether the stored cotton forming the asset is the property of Germany or of a citizen in the United States. For this reason it is believed the German agents in question will find it much easier to negotiate the credit loan.

"It is believed that the Federal Reserve Board is fully alive to the possibilities offered under the existing circumstances. After careful consideration of the Federal Reserve Act and of the emergency of the situation the board is not likely to attempt to alter its existing regulations in any manner which might prevent the purchase and storage of cotton in the United States by any foreign nation or by the citizens of any foreign nation. The commercial paper arising in such a transaction, it is held, will have a far different characteristic from the commercial paper arising from the purchase of munitions by a credit loan to a foreign nation."

The main point about it is that the cotton growers can rest asured that if the foreign buyers cannot export cotton they will buy and store it for future use.

NEW COUNTY RIVALRY

In the cotton states there used to be rivalry among counties as to the amount of cotton produced in each. For a county to be ranked as a state's greatest cotton producing county, or the champion per capita producer, or credited with the greatest yield per acre, etc., was considered high celebrity. Now a new sort of rivalry has sprung up. It is as to which county raises the greatest variety and produces the largest value in farm production, livestock, etc.

Laurens county, Georgia, has thrown down the gauntlet to the whole state, not in one crop alone, but in total agricultural production. Several counties will take it up and make Laurens prove it. Laurens has been a big cotton growing county, but her people got badly scared by the cotton situation last year. The farmers decided that they were not going to get caught this year, and now they are rejoicing over the abundance and variety of their crops. Thereupon, the Dublin Courier says: "The war's over so far as Laurens county is concerned."

Laurens county this year planted three times as much wheat and oats as last year, more corn, velvet beans, field peas, three times as many sweet potatoes, five times as much rape, rye, amber cane, vetch, and other forage crops in proportion. Her cattle have increased by 20 per cent. and her hogs and poultry by 50 per cent. A considerable crop of cotton also has been produced, since diversification does not mean that cotton shall be abandoned.

The Georgia county has raised more grain and forage crops than will sustain all her people and livestock and there will be a surplus for sale. The people of the county held a great picnic the other day and celebrated "the end of the war," so far as it affects Laurens. The people can live and don't have to sell cotton.

Laurens has to show Burke and Bullock counties, for they have been doing something on the independence line themselves. The chambers of commerce are encouraging that sort of rivalry, and it is a slow county that has not a local chamber or similar organization working for it.

North Carolina has been doing things herself. Judge Rountree states that he has observed everywhere he has been in the State evidences of marvelous diversification of crops. He is a great friend of diversification.

OUR UNCENSORED PRESS

The British people understand how free the press is in America, and the probability is that Germany does, too. The press of the United States is not censored and the newspapers reflect their own opinions, uninspired by their government. Nevertheless, the American press is powerful in its effect on the public mind, freely voicing public opinion regardless of the government and probably that is what the German government and the press of that country take so seriously.

Ordinarily the press in Germany is free, but during the war both the editorials and the news in the papers is censored. The case there now is the reverse of that here, so that we may as well understand that the German papers quoted in the foreign dispatches are speaking for the German nation. If their uterances are not inspired by the government, they are censored as expressive of the public view rather than that of the press.

By these German newspaper utterances we can pretty well judge the attitude of the Imperial government and the people towards the controversy with the United States.

Germany and Great Britain both must judge this country by President Wilson's notes. They represent American sentiment and purpose. The most outspoken papers in the United States in their view of the war and public opinion have never advocated war but have always backed President Wilson in all his efforts to maintain honorable peace for America.

The belligerents are always quoting back at us some of the precedents we have set. However, they should know that we consider that The Hague agreements rubbed every old thing off the slate and made new rules for international guidance, though some of the nations claim that they are not bound by The Hague agreements, as they never ratified them. Nevertheless, the American governmnt stands on the famous Matamoros cases in the Civil war in which the United States Supreme court ruled that the non-contraband portion of a cargo shipped from England to Mexico, destined to Texas which was then blockaded, must be released, since a blockade could not be legally operated against a neutral coast.

It is easy to start another war cloud, and this is the manner in which the Mount Olive Tribune has started something: "A recent census discloses the fact that the city of Wilmington has about 2,500 canines within its limits. Taking this as a basis, North Carolina has a dog population of around three hundred thousand. We stick to our original proposition, that a moderate tax on dogs would soon liquidate the State debt." Probably that is a very low estimate of the number of our dog inhabitants, but it is enough to show that they are in a majority when a legislature is elected.

ANTI-TYPHOID CAMPAIGNS GAINING

Over Two Thousand New Patients Last Week

(State Board of Health)

The fifth week of the co-operative State and County typhoid campaign shows a gain of over 2,000 new patients to take the anti-typhoid treatment. This makes the total number of the five counties, up to date, 31,197.

Last week's enrollment of new patients indicate that the interest of the movement is still gaining, for this number took the treatment with the understanding that they pay a physician for administering the third dose. The records show that Wake County has had 10,806 people to take the treatment; Northampton, 9,853; Cumberland, 4,421; Buncombe, 3,671 and Henderson, 2,416.

To reach the colored people has been one of the most difficult problems of the campaign. But Dr. W. H. Sloan seems to have solved the problem in Northampton County. In one day in the Rich Square section he vaccinated 814 negroes. This appeears to be a record day so far as vaccinations among the colored people are concerned. Such wholesale vaccinations against typhoid will undoubtedly reduce the amount of the disease in these counties for years to come. It is to be regretted that North Carolina has not had a well enforced vital statistics law for the last ten years in order to ascertain the exact reduction, as a result of this work.

They have a funny way of regulating the drunk in Raleigh. It had been discovered that a number of the cases of incapacitation reported by the police were traceable to cider which the farmers would peddle from wagons. The city authorities thereupon passed a law that no farmer could sell in less quantities than half a gallon under a penalty of $10. As the law now stands in Raleigh a man who wants to get drunk quick can buy a gallon of cider from a wagon, but if he should desire to get into the hilarious state gradually, he may buy it by the glass from the local dealers. He is simply given his choice of getting on a drunk in a wholesale or a retail way. In Charlotte cider was made to head the list of contraband as the first step in promoting observance of the prohibition law.—Charlotte News.

UNFIT FOR SALE OF MEATS

Members of Housewives' League Do Not Think Front Street Market Can Be Made Sanitary

General dissatisfaction at the prospects of the Board of Health and City Council permitting the sale of fresh meats in the Front street Market was expressed by the members of the Housewives' League at the regular meeting of this organization in the Merchants' Exhibit and Rest room yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Among the matters considered, first and foremost were the reports of the shop and milk inspection committees, which are working steadily, in spite of the heat of the summer, as it is deemed highly important that these inspections be made during the hot months.

It was decided that a delegate be sent to the Farmers and Farm Housewives' Convention which meets in Raleigh next month. The delegate will be named later.

It was the opinion of the members present at the meeting yesterday that the Front Street market is only fit for a fruit and vegetable market and that until the city supplies a suitable shelter for the country carts the citizens of Wilmington will not gain the advantage of obtaining country produce direct from the farmers.

The recommendations made to City Council at its regular weekly meeting Monday night with reference to the sale of fresh meats at the Front Street market was fully discussed. It was pointed out that it is well known that the original sanitation plans were not carried out and that the interior of the market has never been cleaned nor has any attempt been made to clean it. The roof and walls are covered with dirty cobwebs, it was stated, and the whole building has been in a state of filth so long that it would be next to impossible to put it in a sanitary condition. It was also pointed out that the upstair rooms in both ends of the market have been used as chicken butcheries and sausage factories and that the front of the market is indescribably dirty.

The ladies also brought out the fact that the block east of the market has been used for years as a temporary stabling place for the horses of the hucksters and market men. All efforts to drain this block has been frustrated by the property owners, it was stated, and until this draining is done these interior lots will remain unsanitary. It was the opinion of the ladies that the location of this place, so near the market, is enough to make the market unfit for use as a retail meat market.

THREE BOYS PAROLED.

Watermelon Thieves Before Recorder. Several Other Cases.

Three colored boys were paroled yesterday in custody of relatives by the Recorder because of their ages. They were all convicted of stealing watermelons from Mr. D. F. Klein's farm in East Wilmington. Lancey Sterling, aged 15 years, was paroled in charge of his uncle, Thomas Sterling. James Holmes, aged 11 years, was given to his mother, Mrs. Ellen Burgess. Willie McRae, aged 12 years, was put in the care of his mother, Janie McRae. Stealing watermelons is getting to be the besetting sin of the negro youths the past few days and the policemen are on the job to catch them.

Bizzie Turner, colored, was tried on a charge of larceny and on account of her health was discharged after paying the costs. Rep Boney, colored, who was up about two weeks ago on a charge of trespass, was given the privilege of vacating the premises of Mr. John E. Wood, of Castle Haynes and having his case suspended, but an appeal was taken and he will get a hearing in Superior Court. He is now out under a $100 bond. Ella Wallace, colored, was given 60 days on being convicted of being guilty of an assault.

COLONIAL INN TO BE MADE APARTMENT HOUSE.

Work on Plans by J. F. Leitner Begins Soon—Ten Suites.

There will be ten new suites of rooms that can be used for living apartments when the work is finished, according to the plans drawn by Mr. J. F. Leitner, for remodeling the Colonial Inn into an apartment house. Mr. Oscar Pearsall, the owner, said yesterday that the work of remodeling the building will begin soon. The apartments will have from two to five rooms, the two-room suites to be used as bachelor apartments. A new steam heating apparatus and an electric elevator will be installed. A cafe will be located on the first floor.

The building will be renovated and remodeled throughout and its location on the northeast corner of Third and Market streets, is one of the best in the city. Work will be under way in a few weeks and the improvements will be completed in time for the apartments to be used in the fall.

STILL THEY COME

Another Claimant for Sam Merrick's Money Visits Wilmington

Maj. W. N. Harriss, Clerk of the Superior Court, has many things to think about but none that gives him more concern than the disposal of $4,000 which Sam Merrick, the old colored man, left behind when he died a few months ago. Yesterday another claimant arived with valid proofs of the fact that he was the nearest living relative of the old darkey. Major Harriss told him to file his claim and it would be given due consideration. The man said he was from Georgia and he told Major Harriss that he would file the claim in due form and was sure he would get the money.

Major Harriss has been appointed collector for the estate and will no doubt feel disposed to put in a big bill for services rendered as it has occupied no little of his time in hearing the claims of various and sundry persons from all sections of the South.

MEETING OF BEACH ALDERMEN

Dr. Nesbitt Reports Surface Wells Unhealthful—Feast of Lanterns Commission Appointed.

A meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Wrightsville Beach was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the office of Mayor Thomas H. Wright for the purpose of appointing a committee to take charge of the fireworks and lantern displays at the Feast of Lanterns on August 6 and to hear a report from Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, county health officer.

In order to safeguard the town from danger of fire on account of the thousands of lanterns and lights that are expected to be used in the parade on the night of the celebration it was thought wise to appoint a fire commission which will have charge of all the preparations for the display. The commission appointed is composed of Messrs. W. A. French, chairman, B. H. Bridgers and Albert Solomon.

Mr. H. E. Bonitz, chairman of the general entertainment committee, appeared before the board and explained thoroughly the arrangements that are being made for the event. His ideas were heartily endorsed by the aldermen. He reported that many lanterns are being sold and that there is every prospect of making the celebration a grand success.

Mr. Bonitz explained that it is the purpose of the entertainment committee to have lighted lanterns placed only on the lawns and along the beach and that those used in the homes would be lighted with electricity. In this way he thought that there would be no danger from fire. The special commission appointed by the board will take every precaution to see that nothing is done that might lead to fire.

Dr. Nesbitt in his report of an investigation of the health conditions on the beach stated that the surface pumps, a great many of which are being used, have been found to be detrimental to health and he urged the board to bring about a discontinuance of the use of these pumps as soon as possible. The matter was taken under advisement.

The members of the board present yesterday were: Mayor Thomas H. Wright, city clerk and Treasurer R. H. Northrop and Messrs. J. A. Taylor and L. Stein.

MATAXAS EXPLAINS METHODS

Sale of Unserviceable Clothing to Give Children Outing

There has been some criticism of the recent sale of old clothing donated to the Salvation army for poor children, and Adjutant Mataxas gives his explanation to be that the money was used to give the children an outing at Wrightsville Beach, and the clothing sold was the accumulations of articles that he had been unable to place satisfactorily. The old clothes brought $50, which was used in the Salvation Army work.

Mr. and Mrs. Mataxas cordially invite the public, at any time to inspect the headquarters, located in the second, third and fourth floors of the Seamen's Home Building on Front and Dock streets.

BIG DELEGATION TO RALEIGH

Rotary Club Holds Enthusiastic Meeting—Much Sentiment in Favor of Free Bridge.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Rotary Club was held last evening in the Trust building. Mr. M. A. Curtis, chairmna of the committee on arrangements for the trip to Raleigh next month, reported that quite a number of members had signified their intention of attending the celebration by the Raleigh club when members of the Wilmington, Richmond, Norfolk and Asheville Rotary clubs will be their guests. A special Fullman car will be operated from Wilmington for the accommodation of those going from this city. One of the features of the celebration will be a barbecue.

Mr. J. B. Rice presided at the meeting last night and Mr. Meares Harriss, the secretary, kept a record of the proceedings.

Mr. T. D. Love, chairman of the committee on the matter of securing a free bridge or ferry across the Cape Fear, reported that he had received much encouragement not only in Wilmington but also from Brunswick county. He pointed out the many advantages of having a free bridge and also of having a good highway through Brunswick county. This would cause thousands of people, he said, to come to Wilmington in automobiles who now go to other places.

In addition to this and fully as important in every way would be the opening up of a vast trucking section. A good road to Southport in the near future is already an assured fact. With a free ferry or bridge this would mean a great deal to the people of both counties.

The matter of securing the free bridge or ferry across the river is one of the undertakings that the Rotary Club expects to keep constantly under consideration. It is considered an undertaking of the utmost importance to the city's future growth and development.

A committee consisting of representatives of different lines of business was appointed to co-operate with the Housewives' League with a view to helping in the "Buy in Wilmington" movement. The committee with the help of the League will endeavor to see that the merchants carry such things as are needed, to be sold at reasonable prices with the understanding that the ladies will purchase merchandise in this city instead of sending to other places for it, when they can buy in Wilmington as cheaply as elsewhere and obtain goods of the same, if not better, quality.

This committee is composed of Messrs. Henderson Cole, furniture; C. H. Fore, dry goods; L. W. Wessell, shoes; W. M. Atkinson, groceries, and W. M. Peck, hardware.

President John R. Murchison was authorized to appoint a committee to cooperate with the Housewives' League in its other work for the welfare of the city.

The membership commitee reported the election of a number of new members. The Morning Star and The Evening Dispatch were elected honorary members of the organization, these being the only honorary members of the club. Members of the club expressed their appreciation of the generous cooperation and general spirit of willingness on the part of the press to help in the work of the club.

INVENTS ADDING MACHINE

Mr. J. F. Leitner, of Wilmington, Perfects Useful Device—Company Organized to Manufacture It.

The Fractional Adding Machine Company has been incorporated in Virginia with a $25,000 paid in capital for the purpose of manufacturing a new fractional adding machine which has been invented by Mr. J. F. Leitner, a well known architect of Wilmington. The machine is said to fill a long felt want of architects, contractors, machinery men, structural and civil engineers, terra cotta and tile and marble workers.

Being the first fractional adding machine on the market that sells at a reasonable price, the company has been highly pleased to have received orders for several hundred machines in advance of their manufacture. Engineering concerns in various cities of the country have submitted figures on proposals to manufacture the machine.

Mr. Leitner perfected his invention several months ago but kept the matter quiet as he did not wish to make any public announcement until after the first lot of machines had been installed. It was through an announcement in the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore that it became generally known in Wilmington that a company had been incorporated for the manufacture of the machine.

A contract was placed two months ago with a tool manufacturers in Detroit, Mich., to make the machinery for the manufacture of the machine in large quatities. The first lot of 1,000 machines will be ready for delivery in 30 days.

The company has not decided on any particular city for the location of a manufacturing plant. It is easily within the bounds of possibility that it will be located in Wilmington.

Messrs. J. F. Leitner and U. A. Underwood, a well known contractor of this city, are interested in the company.

The new adding machine has the advantage of being light and compact and can be manufactured so as to be sold at a price that is within the reach of all and yet does the work of higher priced machines. It is of great service to those engaged in mechanical pursuits as it adds common fractions with ease and dispatch. Mechanical engineers who have examined it have spoken of it in the highest terms and many orders have already been received.

"DANGERS OF THE STREET"

Educational Feature to Be Put on At Local Playhouses This Week.

Under the auspices of the Tidewater Power Company, the Bijou and Grand theatres will show today and tomorrow, respectively, a "safety motion picture," which is designed to educate the public as to preventable street railway accidents.

To prevent accidents, education of the public is essential. Carefully kept statistics show that the public are responsible for three times as many accidents as may be charged to the fault of the employes. To the company safety is important aside from the humanitarian instinct, because it means a saving in dollars and because it insures better relations with the public and with the governmental agencies, particularly those entrusted with regulatory powers. The Chicago street railways and the public service railways of Newark are among the companies using motion pictures extensively.

The pictures will prove very interesting as illustrating traffic in crowded cities. These pictures will also be shown at Lumina Friday night.

FIND BUSINESS BETTER

Mr. D. H. Howes, Jr., Attends Special Meeting of Equitable Agents.

Mr. D. H. Howes, Jr., special agent for the Equitable Life Insurance Company returned yesterday from White Sulphur Springs, West Va., where he spent a week in attendance at the annual meeting of the Southern Century club, an organization of the agents of the company who have written more than $100,000 each worth of insurance during the year. There were about 200 agents in attendance from all parts of the South and Middle West.

Mr. Howes said that he found a general spirit of optimism on the part of the agents, especially those from the Middle West. It was the general consensus of opinion, he stated, that conditions are improving or at least that the people are learning to adjust themselves to the changed conditions and are determined to keep things moving.

The gathering was one of great pleasure to all. A number of the officials of the Equitable attended and addressed the agents.

PLAYING ANCIENT GAME

Officers Make a Raid on Wrightsville Sound and Arrest Negroes.

Fifteen negroes were arrested Monday night for shooting crap in the woods back of the home of Mr. H. L. Fennell, at Wrightsville Sound, by Deputy Sheriffs Kelly and Keen and County Officer Godwin. It had been known for some time that these woods were being used by the negroes and the officers were on the track. When they came upon the bunch Monday night, negroes scattered like a covey of partridges, but the officers have succeeded in capturing fifteen. These will have a hearing before Justice Harriss Friday.

ADDITION TO PLANT

KILL COCKROACHES

Easy Matter to Exterminate These Filthy Pests.

Even a feeble imagination can think of the germs the cockroach must bring as it crawls around the kitchen and pantry, contaminating and spoiling food. Now is the time to kill off the cockroaches and free your home from the repulsive insects. A dozen cockroaches killed now is better than killing hundreds later.

A two ounce box of Stearns Electric Paste, which you can get for twenty-five cents from any druggist, will rid your home of cockroaches or water bugs. It is much better than powders, as it can not blow away and get into the food. Easy to use and an absolute exterminator. Directions in fifteen languages in every package.

All Babies Destined to Great Achievement

To be born is to be great. For there are possibilities in every tiny human infant. And for this reason every one should remember that whatever is done to aid the mother, to relieve her of distresses during her trying months, will surely be of marked benefit to the child.

Among the sterling aids is a splendid external remedy known as "Mother's Friend." It is what is called an embrocation. It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in by your own hand guided by your own mind. It makes the muscles pliant, they expand quite naturally and the effect upon the nerves is such that they adjust themselves to the process of expansion so that pain from this source is almost eliminated. Women who use "Mother's Friend" refer to the absence of morning sickness, they are relieved of a great many minor distresses, all apprehension disappears and those peculiar nervous "fidgets" no longer disturb the nights. It is well named "Mother's Friend." Get a bottle today of any druggist. Then at once write for a most entertaining and instructive book for all prospective mothers. Address Bradfield Regulator Co., 705 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

This book explains the physical action of "Mother's Friend," tells why it enforces strength to the muscles and relieves undue strain. It also contains letters of experience from many happy mothers. It is just such a handy little book as every woman will at once recognize as just what she had always wished to read—plain facts about herself. The book is mailed free to any address. Hunt, Smithfield, N. C.; M. W. Croker, Columbia, S. C.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mrs. Thomas P. Moore has returned home from Wrightsville Beach, where she spent three weeks. During the absence of Mrs. Moore from the city her two little girls remained with Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Cabell Smith, of Martinsville, Va., who has been spending the summer here.—Miss Leonore Seay has returned home from Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach, where she spent two months visiting friends.—Messrs. E. P. Tingley, W. C. Hinson and George Norman have returned from Wrightsville, where they spent a week."

An innovation that met with general approval and created much interest was the dancing of one of the old-time dances at Lumina last evening by an elderly gentleman from Brunswick county. There was little evidence, however, of his age in his dancing which was superb. His exhibition was greeted wth loud applause.

MISS FIELDER AND MR. DAVIS WINNERS IN CONTEST

The fox trot dancing contest at Lumina last evening was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd which attended. Miss Aline Fielder, of Atlanta, and Mr. Robert Davis, of Wilmington, were awarded the prizes for being the best dancers in the contest. Miss Fielder was given a beautiful vanity chatelaine and Mr. Davis was given the gentlemen's prize, a handsome silver match box. Consolation prizes of boxes of candy were given to other couples in the final contest, these being Miss Margaret Scott, of St. Louis, and Mr. Mebane Long, of Charlotte, and Miss Gladys Byrd, of Atlanta, and Mr. W. F. Morrison, of Wilmington.

The judges were Mrs. Bennington, of Tarboro; Mrs. Randolph, of New York, and Mr. Merrick, of New York. The decision of the judges was received with much favor by the audience.

FORD AUTO PLANT FOR CAROLINA NOT LOCATED.

Wilmington is Still in the Running With Many Other Cities

For months the Ford Motor Company has been lookng for a suitable location for an assembling plant somewhere in the Carolinas or Virginia and a number of cities have been laying their plans before the company together with rates and facilities and comfortable living condition. President L. E. Hall and Secretary H. B. Branch, of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, are presenting Wilmington's case as forcefully and fully as it can be presented.

Some time ago, it was announced that Charlotte had been selected as a location, but that was found to be either unofficial or the decision reversed. The last heard from the company was that all applying cities would get a hearing and a careful examination of the opportunities offered in each city would be taken note of before the location was settled upon. Charlotte, Richmond and Winston-Salem are among the other cities trying for the plant.

In Readiness for Celebration.

Mr. Geo. J. Moore, of Atkinson, president of the Moore's Creek Battleground Association, was a business visitor in the city yesterday. He stated that everything is now in readiness for the annual celebration at Moore's Creek Battleground on August 5th. This is an annual occasion and is always attended by several thousand people. Mr. Moore says that the celebration will be on a bigger scale this year than ever before.

Taken on Peace Warrant

Mitchell Williamson, white, was tried yesterday before Justice Bornemann on a peace warrant, his wife, Hannah Williamson, taking oath that she was afraid of him. Mrs. Williams is employed in scrubbing floors in the Murchison Bank building at night and had been accustomed to sleep through the day time until last Christmas when she married Williamson. Since that time she says he has given her so much trouble that she has been unable to sleep and has threatened to whip her. Justice Bornemann put him under a bond of $100 to keep the peace for two months and sentenced him to jail for a month in default of costs in the case. Owing to the fact that Williamson is said to have failed to furnish anything to the support of his family, his father-in-law has had him arrested for vagrancy and he will have a hearing on this charge this morning before the Recorder.

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMEN

How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief. Every month the pains were intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief. After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend. You are at liberty to use my letter in any way."—Mrs. THOMSON, 649 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

COTTON UNDERTONE STEADY

Crop and Weather Conditions Dominate New York Market—Complaints from the East.

New York, July 27.—Crop and weather conditions dominated the cotton market today. An impression that the eastern belt was suffering from insufficient rainfall had much to do with a moderate buying movement after the opening and a steady undertone prevailed all day with last prices one point lower to six points higher.

Today's complaints from the eastern belt attracted considerable attention for the reason that conditions there have heretofore been regarded as extremely favorable. It is true, there has been little rainfall in the last few weeks, but previous ample moisture gave the crop a good start and it was generally believed that it was now making satisfactory progress. Today's news intimated that unless the dry spell is speedily relieved deterioration will occur. The Texas drouth was also unrelieved and more or less buying developed on this news also.

The opening was steady and 3 points lower to 1 point higher.

Liverpool was better than due and with Wall street and the South, furnished most of the buying orders during the forenoon. Outside support was restrained to some extent by expectations of a bearish weekly weather report fomorrow.

The futures market closed steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Prices Stood at a Small Rise Throughout the Session

New Orleans, July 27.—Cotton stood at a small rise throughout the session today, offerings being light at all times. A steady but small demand served to sustain prices. At the best of the day, the most active months were 10 points up. The close was at a net advance of 5 to 6 points.

In the early trading the market was influenced favorably by good cables and the lack of rain in Texas. Toward noon private messages from Texas reported good rains at a number of points in the drouth area and the market reacted from the rise, at one time standing only 2 points over last nights quotation. Later another upward movement developed but the market showed little strength.

STOCK DEMAND BROADENED

Best Account of Sustained Strength in Some Time—Railroad Shares Active.

New York, July 27.—The demand for stocks broadened today and the market gave the best account of sustained strength in some time. Of particular significance was the rawakening of activity in the railroad shares, as the dull ness and heaviness of these stocks of late have constituted one of the most unfavorable aspects of the situation. Today, however, a wave of optimistic feeling prevailed in all quarters of the market and the railway issues gradually came into the lead in speculation.

The rise began with a further marking up of the war stocks, several of which again made high records. The buying movement later spread to other specialties and in the afternoon it shifted to the railroad stocks. In the last part of the day, the buoyant rise in these issues was the dominant feature.

St. Paul was lifted 5 1-2, Canadian Pacific 5 and a large number of others from 1 to 4 points.

Among the industrials, Bethlehem Steel rose 29 points to 350, the preferred 3 points to 142, crucible steel 5 points to 51 1-2, Baldwin Locomotive 2 1-2 to 85, Can 1 5-8 to 61 7-8 and Chalmers preferred 2 points to 68 1-4, all new high records.

The rise was assisted by the inferences draw nfrom the conduct of the market yesterday. The sharp recovery from the break o nthe torpedoing of the American steamer Leelanaw was interrupted as an indication of underlying strength. Buying of railroad stocks was prompted by an evident scarcity of these shares.

There was heavy buying of steel in anticipation of a favorable quarterly statement and this expectation was realized fully when the statement appeared after the close.

Bonds irregular. Total sales par value $2,900,000.

U. S. 4s Coupon declined 1-4 on call.

RECEIVER NAMED FOR CITY OF NASHVILLE

Mayor and Other Municipal Officers Are Ousted.

Receivership Suit Brought by Miles Burns and Other Citizens—He Has Resigned as City Comptroller.

Nashville, Tenn., July 27.—Master in Chancery Robert Vaughn was named receiver for the municipality of Nashville today by Chancellor Allison. A few minutes later Mayor Hilary Howse, City Treasurer Charles Meyers and City Commissioners Robert Elliot and Lyle Andrews were suspended from office by Circuit Judge Mathews in proceedings instituted under Tennessee's new "ouster law."

The receivership suit was brought by Miles Burns, who since has resigned the office of city comptroller, and other citizens. The ouster suit was instituted by a number of tax payers, the law requiring that at least ten sign the petition.

J. M. Wilkerson, recently resigned as city commissioner; Andrews, Burns, Meyers and Assistant Treasurer W. H. West are under indictment in connection with the disappearance of books and records from the comptroller's office. West's whereabouts is not known.

banded by President Guillaume and who resented this treatment.

There has been a reign of terror in Port au Prince for the past ten days. On the 17th of July President Guillaume started on a series of persecutions. He began causing the arrest of Haitiens of any wealth or position, without distinction of age or sex, and expelling all foregners.

Haitien women have been arrested on the streets and taken away to prison. The prisons of the city were full and the conditions in them were deplorable. Prisoners have died daily as a result of hunger and the unsanitary conditions in which they were compelled to live.

The foreign legations hold many refugees.

assistance of the commanding officers of the steamboat inspection service. It seems right to us, however, that something more should be done than that, and therefore I have asked Mr. Harry A. Wheeler, vice president of the Union Trust Company, and Mr. Marvin B. Pool, of Butler Brothers, to ast as unofficial observers or partakers in the inquiry. It is my purpose to ask that the Western Electric Company select some technical member of its staff as a third representative.

"It is hoped to begin the inquiry Thursday. These hearings are informal in the sense that legal restrictions as to testimony are waived."

Moving picture censors today refused permits to four concerns which wanted to display pictures of the Eastland disaster, on the ground that the companies wanted to "commercialize a calamity."

WILL GO TO BOTTOM

Thorough Investigation of Steamboat Inspection Service to Follow

Washington, July 27.—A thorough investigation of the steamboat inspection service of the Department of Commerce, it was learned today, possibly will grow out of the Eastland disaster in Chicago. A movement already is on foot in the department for the practical reorganization of the service in preparation for the inauguration of the new Seaman's law in November and the disaster will tend to give impetus to this work.

With Secretary Redfield in charge of the department's investigation in Chicago, an independent inquiry has been started. The Secretary proposes to go to the bottom of the matter and the investigation of the entire inspection service, which has been going on quietly for some time, will be pressed with added vigor.

Within the last two months, five local officials have been dropped from the service. As all were under the classified civil service, the retirements was only effected after charges had been filed and heard.

AMERICAN JAILED AT BERLIN

Charged With Fraudulently Obtaining Passport for British Subject

Berlin, July 27.—via London, July 28.—Charles Wilson, clerk in the American consulate in Berlin, is in jail here pending an investigation into the circumstances of the escape of a British resident on an alleged fraudulently obtained American passport. Wilson is alleged to have certified that he personally knew the applicant for the passport as an American citizen, thereby enabling him to obtain the document.

Wilson later disappeared from Berlin. He was arrested at the Swedish frontier and brought back to Berlin.

WILSON BECOMING IMPATIENT

There Must Be an Improvement in Affairs in Mexico Soon

Cornish, N. H., July 27.—President Wilson today studied reports of increasing chaotic conditions in Mexico and gave earnest consideration to formulating the next policy inaugurated. He announced that there must be an improvement in affairs in the southern republic.

It was said tonight that the President was not ready to make any statement here indicating what his plans are with regard to Mexico. He has already received the ideas of his closest advisers on the question.

TO CANVASS THE STATE FOR PUBLICITY BUREAU

To Secure as Many $50 Memberships as Possible.

President Page and Directors Decide on State Fair Week as Time for Permanent Organization Meeting at Raleigh.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—President Henry A. Page and Directors A. W. McLean, Lumberton; O. L. Joyner, Greenville; J. C. Forester, Greensboro, and Clarence Poe, Raleigh, in conference here this afternoon projecting plans for the North Carolina Bureau of Publicity recently organized here as the outcome of the movement for a State chamber of commerce, decided to procure at once a suitable man to canvass the State for at least one hundred $50 memberships of the bureau and have, of course, other and lesser membership fees in proportion to the interests involved.

It was agreed that the meeting for permanent organization be held in this city on Tuesday night of State Fair week in October, and President Page, Secretary J. C. Forester and Mr. Bion Butler were named as a special committee to get up the program for the Fair week meeting.

BOND FOR PLUMMER GILBERT

Arrives in Wilmington in Custody of Sheriff Cowan—Immediately Released After Long Trip.

Plummer Gilbert, the young Wilmington white man, wanted here on a charge of being implicated in the robbery of the store of the C. W. Polvogt Co., several months ago, was released under bond n the sum of $1,000 with his brother, Mr. Charles D. Gilbert, as surety immediately after his arrival this morning on the 12:40 train from the South in the custody of Sheriff S. P. Cowan, who went to San Antonio, Texas, last week to bring him back to this city.

Sheriff Cowan was accompanied on his long trip by Deputy Sheriff Reynolds. They made the journey without a mishap of any kind although they were well nigh worn out when they reached Wilmington this morning.

Gilbert was first arrested some time ago, it will be remembered, in Knoxville, Tenn., and was brought back to Wilmington by Sheriff Cowan. He gave bond in the sum of $400 before Justice Harriss and was released, but when the case was called for trial he failed to appear and the bond was declared forfeited. The case was continued at the last term of Superior Court.

It was through the efforts of the Branch National Detective Agency, of Knoxville, Tenn., with whom Gilbert was formerly employed, that he was located in San Antonio, Tex. After securing requisition papers, Sheriff Cowan and Deputy Reynolds went after him last week.

Judge Rountree yesterday named the bond that would be required for Gilbert this time as being $1,000 and his brother had all the papers made out so that Gilbert could be released on bond as soon as he arrived in the city. The case will come up for trial at the next term of Superior Court, which meets September 13th.

plunged into war with a European country outside of the British Isles, never could successfully maintain a blockade so long as the enemy country could receive unlimited supplies accross the borders of an adjacent country, is regarded by the British as a fact which should be considered in dealing with the effort to cut off supplies being received by Germany. The decision of the United States Supreme court, in the Matamoras cases during the Civil war, where a similar right appears to be denied, is held by Great Britain not to apply to the present conditions, because at that time there was practically no way of supplies being landed in Mexico to reach Confederate states overland because of a lack of transportation facilities.

Lest there should be eventually an agreement of the right of the British government to detain vessels and cargoes under the order in council and failing a diplomatic adjustment, it is pointed out by British officials that American interests may safely be trusted to the special international tribunal provided for in the arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain, which, the British hold, was intended to deal with just such issues.

INVISIBLE AEROPLANES THE LATEST GERMAN INVENTION

Wings Made of Clear Transparent Material—Description.

Amsterdam, July 27 (via London, July 28).—Germany possesses invisible aeroplanes, according to the Cologne Gazette. The wings are made of clear transparent material called cellon, the invention of a German engineer named Kanauble.

Cellon is manufactured from cellos and acectic acid, and is tough, pliable and non-inflammable. A machine covered with cellon is said to be virtually invisible above an altitude of 3,000 feet.

Herr Knauble made his first experiments with the material two years ago.

WORKERS IN MUNITIONS FACTORIES TO STRIKE

Unless Their Demands for Increased Wages Are Met.

Five Thousand Men Ready to Quit New York and New Jersey Factories, Their Leader Declares Many Plants Affected.

New York, July 17.—Demand for increased wages and an eight-hour day will be made upon the managements of a number of munitions factories in New York and New Jersey, it was decided here today at a meeting between representatives of the International Association of Machinists and workers in the munitions plants. A strike involving about 5,000 machinists will follow the refusal of the employers to grant the demands, J. J. Keppler, vice president of the machinists, announced.

Among the concerns which will receive demands, according to Mr. Keppler, are the E. W. Bliss Company, of Brooklyn, makers of torpedoes, the International Paper Company and a few munitions plants at Plainfield, N. J., where 1,500 machinists are employed.

BRIDGEPORT STRIKE MELTING

Further Deflections in the Ranks of the Union Reported.

Briwgeport, Conn., July 27.—Further deflections today in the ranks of the union marked the machinists' strike, instituted a week ago at the Remington-Union Metallic Cartridge plants, which are working on millions of dollars worth of war orders for the Allies.

George Bowman, business manager of the machinists, announced tonight that two machinists and a number of helpers returned to work. The manufacturers claim many more than that number returned to work.

War Costly to British.

The war has been costly in men to the British army and navy, the casualties totalling 330,995, according to a printed statement issued by Premier Asquith. The casualties in the navy were 9,166 to July 20, while those of the army to July 18 were 321,889.

SUBMARINE DESTROYS SUBMARINE

French and German Undersea Craft Engage in Dardanelles.

Berlin, July 27 (by Wireless to Sayville).—The French submarine Mariotte was destroyed by a German submarine on July 26 in the Narrows of the Dardanelles, according to a dispatch from Constantinople to the Mittag Zeitung. Thirty-one members of the French submarine's crew were captured.

The narrows where the engagement between the French and German submarines took place, is about midway in the Dardanelles straits between the Aegean sea and the Sea of Marmora. They are fifteen miles from the entrance to the straits.

The French submarine Mariotte was built at Cherbourg in 1911. She was 215.7 feet long. She was fitted with six torpedo tubes and was capable of traveling 15 knots an hour on the surface and 10 knots when below.

TURKS CLAIM SUCCESSES

Captured Portion of Enemy Trenches and Destroyed Defenders.

Constantinople, Turkey, July 27 (via London).—An official statement given out today by the Turkish war department says:

"A small Turkish reconnoitering detachment captured on July 25, near Zeddul-bahr, a portion of enemy trenches and destroyed the defenders. We took 400 rifles with a quantity of ammunition and some bags filled with bombs."

BOMBS DROPPED ON VERONA

Italian City Bombarded by Austrian Aeroplane—No Life Lost

Verona, Italy, July 27.—About a dozen bombs were dropped on this city today by an Austrian aeroplane. There were no victims of the air attack and the damage done to property was insignificant.

Alarm was given as soon as the Austrian machine appeared over Verona early this morning and all lights were extinguished. All the forts defending the city fired at the aeroplane but it escaped.

Verona is a fortified city and, next to Venice, is the most important town of the Italian compartmento of Venitia. It is situated at the base of the Tyrolex Alps, 62 miles west of Venice. Verona is distinguished by its wonderful medieval palaces. Its institutions comprise academies of painting and sculpture, a municpal library of about 160,000 volumes and several museums, collections of art, natural history and antiquities. It has a population of about 75,000.

NOTE OF INQUIRY ON ATTACK UPON THE ORDUNA PRESENTED

American Government Asks Germany for Explanation.

Berlin, July 27, via London, July 28.—The American ambassador today presented to the foreign office a note of inquiry regarding the attack by a Ger-man submarine boat on the British steamer Orduna.

The Cunard liner Orduna, with 227 passengers on board—21 of them American citizens—was attacked July 9 by a German submarine south of Queenstown, near the point where the Lusitania was sunk. The captain and others on board said the submarine without warning launched a torpedo which missed the Orduna and that it afterwards shelled her. That the liner escaped unscratched was credited to good seamanship. The Orduna was bound for New York at the time.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

NOTE MUST PRODUCE INDIGNATION HE SAYS

the American government toward Germany.

"The delivery of arms and munitions not always is unneutral but if the fighting power of one of the belligerents exclusively depends upon the delivery of arms and munitions by a neutral power then it constitutes a violation.

"President Wilson speaks on a new and unexpected method of naval warfare and in the May note acknowledged the possibility of submarines detaining hostile ships. A necessary consequence is the destruction of such vessels. Instead, President Wilson demands that Germany abandon the use of her most efficient weapon just because Americans travel on British ships instead of being satisfied with taking passage on American, Dutch, Swedish, Norwegian or Danish ships."
